

K C Chai - Owner

Malaysian lawyer and entrepreneur K C Chai bought Inverlochy Castle in 1995 from Mrs Greta Hobbs. At that time Inverlochy Castle was already a well-established and world-renowned hotel. KC invested significantly in upgrading the hotel, and brought in Michael Priest from London, a well-known interior decorator.

Under the new leadership of Norbert Lieder, Inverlochy Castle has gone from strength to strength, and is today one of the most highly regarded destinations in the Scottish Highlands.

Inverlochy Castle has given KC an enormous amount of pride and satisfaction. It always gave him a lot of pleasure to see the guests so happy and relaxed. Quite a number come back year after year.

After owning the Castle for over 20 years, KC sadly passed away in 2020 but the hotel remains in the family and is managed under the K C Chai Family Trust.

Caption for Photo:

KC with "Scruffy", his brother Dr S Chai's dog, in Canada, taken about the time that KC bought Inverlochy Castle.