

Scottish whisky has a wonderful reputation all over the world for quality and diversity. The malt whiskies are divided into 5 regions each displaying unique style and heritage that go all the way back to the 6th century when the Celtic monks brought back distilling to Scotland and Ireland.

THE LOWLAND'S

AUCHENTOSHAN 3 WOODS £9.50

Sweet smooth toffee, vanilla, caramel, raisins, fruit cake, hints of oak, and pungent berries and fruits. A fairly thick nose on this with a strong sweet-syrupy note. Through Palate Fast, sweet arrival with fruitful tannins and a dry fruity complexity. Something citrus'y in here as well on the Finish Dry yet sweet. Some bitterness with a shy woody note coming through. Decent length here

GLENKINCHIE, 12 YR £10.50

Fresh orange (brief), raisins, green apples, honey, white bread standing in Palate maple and brown sugar, oatmeal, sliced almonds, more raisins, to the Finish flash of peat and smoke, cinnamon sugar toast rolls through, before a warm, dry, tingly, mouthfeel wets your appetite for another taste Balance a very warm comforting stroll through a broad spectrum of flavors.

GLENKINCHIE DISTILLERS, 13 YR £15.50

The mouth feel is medium, and almost completely lacks any of the sweetness promised by the nose. The flavours seem dominated by bitter almonds, some grassy vegetable like flavours and a little malt do little to raise this whiskies game. A dry finish with some of the spices returning from the nose. The bitter almonds and vegetables exit stage left to leave a pleasant enough aftertaste

BLADNOCH 16YR £22.00

One of the last bottlings of the former owners Bladnoch has had rather a checkered history most of us not knowing if it was in business from year to year it is the most southern distillery in Scotland away down near Wigtown on the Scottish borders.

AILSABAY £25.00

On The Nose Dark, serious notes of earth, tar, wet tarpaulin and liquorice combine deliciously with lighter aromas of roasted almonds and toasted oatmeal drenched in honey. Through the palate Sweet smoke and bonfire embers merge with liquorice, tarry rope and a refreshing hint of lemon, then soft notes of pear and oatmeal arrive. Youthful but characterful and punchy. To the end The dark flavours don't let up: plenty of smoky tar and liquorice

LITTLEMILL £75.00

On the Nose light, fruity and a bit oily: notes of lemon cream, marzipan, a tad of vanilla, a layer of fruit: rhubarb, gooseberries and tangerines, finishing with a whiff of stone dust, The Mouth: light and waxy body with just one note on the palate: pink grapefruit (amazing): bitter, hot and burning. And to the last the Finish: long and drying, with notes bitter oranges and oak

The Spey Valley

ABERLOUR, 10 YR

£12.50

Through the nose sweet fruit and hint of spice, the sherry cask has worked some magic on the distillate who knew scotch could smell this good, In the mouth slightly cloying on the tongue with no real sense of spice, one drop of water and 5 minutes and the spice is released with a warming peppery tingle dancing across my tongue balanced the sweet too perfection. to the last line is a little short and there is a bit of a raw edge to the spirit neat but the drop of water removes this.

AUCHROISK, 10 YR

£12.50

The nose is malty and somewhat mineraly, but not very fruity, which comes as a bit of a surprise. I get some honey, toffee and hints of brown sugar, the graeffe variety. Dried coconut. Biscuits and tea. Clean and slightly creamy, it is very creamy on the palate and does show a fruity side now. Citrus and apricots. A touch of bitterness. Licquorice and aniseed. Cold, green tea. Sand biscuits. The finish is medium long and drying

CRAGGANMORE, 12 YR

£12.50

Fairly rich and buttery at first. Bitter-sweet caramel soaked in rum. Sweet and candied on Bailey's with a dash of orange oils. Hint of raisin jam. Perhaps even lightly burned honey. In the back are some echoes of the malty base. Great stuff so far. (with water) Just a drop or three, easy does it! More fine, sweet, and beautiful coffee. Fine sandalwood, and aged sweet cigar wrappers. Less rich, but no less lovely.

CRAGGANMORE DISTILLERS EDITION

£16.50

The nose is very waxy and sturdy with pot pourri, freshly mown grass, green sour apples and oranges and a big trace of smoke. Vanilla and licquorice in the background. Pleasant and inviting. It's a little bit oily and very piquant. The sour fruit from the nose returns (tangerines?), supported by a handful of wood spice length and spicy

BALVENIE

THE BALVENIE is a range of single malts crafted by Malt Master David Stewart. Each expression is unique, but all are rich, luxuriously smooth and underpinned by a distinctive honeyed character. Understanding his craft like few others, David uses different cask types and ages of spirit, to develop exquisite, new interpretations of The Balvenie's classic character

- BALVENIE DOUBLE WOOD, 12 YR £15.50
The nose Sweet fruit and Oloroso sherry notes, layered with honey and vanilla, Smooth and mellow with beautifully combined flavours , though the palate nutty sweetness, cinnamon spiciness and a delicately proportioned layer of sherry, Long and Warming
- BALVENIE CARRIBEAN CASK, 14 YR £17.50
Through the nose Rich, sweet and creamy toffee on the nose combines with fresh fruit notes, straight to the taste Rounded with vanilla and sweet oak notes, with a fruity character that, climaxing with the finish develops with time Soft and lingering
- BALVENIE SINGLE BARREL, 15 YR £19.50
A rich combination of elegant oak and subtle spice on the nose. Smooth and complex with clear hints of dried fruit and spice overlaid with a gentle nuttiness on the palate, and to the last part the length Long and sherried
- BALVENIE PORT FINISH, 21 YR £45.00
A perfume of fruity and ripe raisin notes, backed by a nutty dryness start the whisky of followed with Refined with remarkable character, it is creamy and silky with fruit, honey and spice notes on the palate finishing with Long, and gentle, nutty
- BALVENIE TUN 1509 £82.00
Limited Release from Balvenie, roasted crushed hazelnuts, Barley sugar and toffee apple on the nose, rich full malty flavour with the hazelnut character coming the that develops a little spicy finish one of my favorites from Balvenie

BENROMACH

Before the mid-1960s, Speyside distilleries malted their own barley. Hidden away in remote glens, they'd top up their fires with cuts of local peat when coal was running low. These slices were enough to impart a touch of smoke in the region's whisky. And, with the advent of new commercial maltings in the swinging '60s, this subtle Speyside smokiness was lost to the world. But only for a while. Because our family bought the mothballed Benromach Distillery and gave the world back this lost style of whisky. But it's not just the peat that makes the difference. Numerous nuances go into creating the classic character of Benromach.

BENROMACH 10 Yr £12.50

At first It starts like some sweet fruity perfume, flowery and light. But it grows bigger and thicker. Crispy sourness of green apples, Dried orange peel. Malt is all around the scene, too. Dark chocolate with raisins and nuts. On to the Palate Full bodied but heavenly light. Watery, and Fruity. Malt and caramel sweetness, but I also recognize some ocean saltiness, hint of peat and wood.

BENROMACH ORIGINS £15.50

The nose is very malty at first, with rich biscuit flavours and lots of oranges. Next, smoke comes to the fore, followed by more oranges and a touch of liquorice..The palate is medium-bodied and lightly spicy. Vanilla and orange flavours take centre stage, together with a good dose of oak, earthy and peppery notes, the finish is of medium length and warming.

BENROMACH 15YR £17.50

A 2015 release to the brilliant Benromach range, The Benromach 15-year-old is matured in a selection of bourbon and sherry casks, resulting in an intense but balanced flavour profile there's big spice, ginger, mint and cinnamon, there is a touch of smoky charred oak

BENROMACH 2001 £21.00

Cask Strength 2001 has been matured in first-fill ex-Bourbon barrels. Each bottle carries a cask number, distillation year and bottling date. Immediate sweet smoke on the nose, plus tinned pears, ripe peaches, crystallised ginger and vanilla. Big, spicy Bourbon notes on the palate, almonds, fudge and then cinder toffee. Lingering fudge and spicy smoke in the finish.

GLENFIDDICH

For 20 years William Grant nurtured a dream to make the ‘best dram in the valley’.

With the help of his family, he finally achieved that vision

In the summer of 1886, with his seven sons and two daughters by his side, William set out to fulfil a lifelong ambition. Together they began building his Distillery by hand, stone by stone. After a single year of work it was ready and William named it Glenfiddich, Gaelic for Valley of the Deer.

GLENFIDDICH 12 YR £12.50

Distinctively fresh and fruity with a hint of pear. Beautifully crafted and delicately balance, Characteristic sweet, fruity notes. Develops into butterscotch, cream, malt and subtle oak flavour a long smooth and mellow finish

GLENFIDDICH 15 YR £16.50

Golden, a red hue, an intriguingly complex aroma. Sweet heather honey and vanilla fudge combined with rich dark fruits. Silky smooth, revealing layers of sherry oak, marzipan, cinnamon and ginger. Full-bodied and bursting with flavour, satisfyingly rich with lingering sweetness.

GLENFIDDICH 21 YR £50.00

Dark gold. Intense and vanilla sweet. Floral, hints of banana, figs, rich toffee, new leather and oak, Initially soft, then brisk, vibrant and drying, peppery, a touch of smoke, oak, lime, ginger and spices, Very long, warming, dry and spicy

CRAGGANMORE	12 YR	£12.50
Fairly rich and buttery at first. Bitter-sweet caramel soaked in rum. Sweet and candied on Bailey's with a dash of orange oils. Hint of raisin jam. Perhaps even lightly burned honey. In the back are some echoes of the malty base.
CRAGGANMORE DISTILLERS EDITION		£16.50
The nose is very waxy and sturdy with pot pourri, freshly mown grass, green sour apples and oranges and a big trace of smoke. Vanilla and licquorice in the background. Pleasant and inviting. It's a little bit oily and very piquant. The sour fruit from the nose returns (tangerines?), supported by a handful of wood spice length and spicy
GLENLIVET		£12.50
The smooth and welcoming, Bright and lively gold. Fruity, summer-like fragrances Well-balanced and fruity with strong pineapple notes Creamy and smooth with marzipan and fresh hazelnuts
INCHGOWER	14 YR	£12.50
It is nicely creamy and sweet, with a twist. A touch of candied sugar and marzipan, albeit in the background. Herbal side. Thyme, it becomes a bit floral. Violets, Lavender
KNOCKANDO	12 YR	£12.50
This is sweet on the nose with malt and cereal and heather with a citrus twist, and mildly spicy, caramel and the citrus orange from the nosing carries through to the taste. Spicy with nutmeg and cinnamon, a little vanilla and leaves a dry smokey feeling to the mouth
LINKWOOD	1991 CASK	£16.50
The nose is rife with yellow and pink apples, a hint of peach and gooseberries. Maybe even some pineapple and rhubarb. A touch of caramel. Very fruity, indeed, sweet malt. No spices
MACALLAN GOLD		£16.50
Lemon citrus, then orange peel and an interlacing sweetness that softens but doesn't eliminate the zest. A quiet note of vanilla is followed by dark chocolate with lingering floral and light oak notes

STRATHISLA

42 YR

£73.00

Wonderful nose on plums, mirabelles and melon. Sweet as a liqueur, in fact. Walnuts and some coffee and even some beef jerky. Some eucalyptus. Touch herbal as well, like Ricola cough candy, loads of spices, spiced with anise and liquorice, but also strawberries and raisins. The finish is very, very long

TAMNAVULIN

12 YR

£15.00

The distillery sits beside the mill on the banks of Allt a Choire 'the stream of the corrie', a tributary of the great river Livet. Known as the "Queen of Speyside", Tamnavulin is smooth and mellow and takes its colour from the oak casks during its twelve long years of maturation

Highland

ABERFELDY 12YR £15.50
Amber. Deep colour with amazing scent coming out with ripe apple fresh oak and a touch of raspberry jam, with the vanilla from the oak turning into butterscotch flavours reminding me of tablet/ fudge and pear juice

DALWHINNIE 15 YR £10.50
Full bodied. Nice texture. Spices. Sweet chocolate. Coffee. Butterscotch. Caramel. Mocha. Cinnamon. Gets woody. Fudge cake. Berries. Hint of tannins Lovely warm sherry. Chocolate milk. Touch of oak. Sweet honey. Wild berries. Mocha frappuccino. Caramel. Touch of limestone. Lime zest. Something green. Gets sweeter over time. Strawberry jam

DALMORE KING ALEXANDER III £40.50
Very crisp and fresh. Oranges and vanilla at first, followed by...more oranges and vanilla. Large traces of burnt caramel and chocolate; small traces of melon and sweet pipe tobacco. It's a nose calculated for effect, but it's a nice effect, well-calculated. Far and away the best part of the experience

GLEN GARIOCH 12 YR £10.50
Spicy with some upfront caramel fudge notes. Citrus and green apple emerge late. Fairly light body. Barley sweetness haloed by tingling spices. A "nip and pinch" bitter-sweet middle, then dries slowly. Warming with nice mouth feel, Quite long with spice predominating. Wood tannins also make an appearance. Seriously chewy!

GLEN GRANT CELLAR RESERVE £25.00
Formerly only available at the distillery, this Glen Grant Cellar Reserve 1992 has been introduced by new owners Campari and is being acclaimed as a major step forward. T The 1992 Cellar Reserve is the sweetest of the range. Clean and

GLENGOGNE

Highly regarded as Scotland's most beautiful distillery, Glengoyne Distillery was established in 1833 and is owned by one of Scotland's most respected family-owned companies, Ian Macleod Distillers. Glengoyne, uncompromising in its pursuit of excellence and honouring the traditions of its founders, runs its stills slower than any other distillery in order to create the complex, sweet flavours for which it is known. Glengoyne's spirit is then matured in the finest oak casks from within its traditional, dunnage warehouses.

GLENGOYNE 10 YR £10.00

Fresh green apples, toffee and a hint of nuttiness. This is the taste of distilling slower than anyone else in Scotland, of barley dried by air – never peat – and of oak casks we select by hand. Just as we've always done. Golden yellow. Clear and bright. The nose is Sweet, with toffee and popcorn aromas. Slightly nutty, with fresh green apples coming through. Finishing Clean. Green apples and grass with a hint of sweet liquorice, Sweet and malty

GLENGOYNE, 12 Years old £15.50

Pale gold in immediate sherry notes on the nose, with hints of moorland green bracken, slight hint of spiced fruit with hint of sweetness that develops on the palate to give it great length and complexity

GLENGOYNE 15 YR £30.00

Complex, sweet and rounded – with a spicy oak finish. This is the taste of distilling slower than anyone else in Scotland, and of barley we dry by air, never peat. The flavours develop in hand-selected sherry casks – balancing deep character with light vanilla notes, Bright gold. Initial hit of sweet lemon gives way to warm toffee popcorn, Oily and mouth coating. Sweet citrus becomes walnuts and a nip of cinnamon

GLENGOYNE 21 YR £85.00

Christmas cake, honey and rich fruit – with a long cinnamon finish. Perfect after dinner, or frankly, anytime. We distil slower than anyone else in Scotland. Then we matured exclusively in hand-selected sherry casks, for twenty-one character-building years, Deep copper, meandering legs, Red apples, toffee, sherry, spicy strudel, Lots of sherry, honey, oak, with a developing aromatic sensation. Ends with a heavy cinnamon nip, Long, sherry, spicy, warm and dry.

GLENGOGNE 25 YR £90.00

Bright amber, red fruits (strawberries?), old leather, brown sugar and raisins, Soft oak, cinnamon, stewed fruits and a Seville marmalade tang. Very long with spicy liquorice, slowly drying.

Created to celebrate a visit from King George VI & Queen Elizabeth in 1939, Crown Royal is full-bodied, yet delicately smooth and creamy, with hints of oak and vanilla.
- KNOB CREEK £11.50
Created to represent whiskey before it was mass produced, Knob Creek embodies the look, feel and taste of pre-prohibition bourbon. This is a long-aged, high-rye bourbon from Jim Beam.
- WOODFORD RESERVE £15.50
Rich and full-bodied, Woodford Reserve is a delicious bourbon, triple distilled for extra smoothness, and loaded with notes of dried fruit and sweet spice
- WOODFORD RYE £16.50
Released in 2015, Woodford Reserve Rye is only the third expression in the core range. 53% of the mashbill is rye, leading to notes of apple and sweet spice
- WOODFORD, DOUBLE OAKED £16.50
An interesting twist on Woodford Reserve's classic straight bourbon. The whiskey is first matured in new charred white oak barrels, as usual, but before bottling is transferred to special heavily toasted, lightly charred finishing barrel
